FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The May 4 memorial committee has finalized its program for the weekend's activities.

Friday, May 2

1:00 P.M. Igai Roodenko, a member of the War Resister's League, will be giving a workshop in Room 310, Kent State Student Center (KSC).

2:00 P.M. Ngo Cong Duc, a former legislator in Thieu's government and publisher of Saigon's largest daily newspaper, Tin San, will be in the Governance Chambers (KSC).

3:00 P.M. Ralph Schoenman, self-styled expert on political assassination will speak in the Ballroom (KSC).

6:00 P.M. Memorial movies in the Kiva. "Kent State, What Happened and Why," "Confrontation at Kent State" will be shown on the hour through 10:00 P.M.

"Retrospect" by Fred Franchi and Areg Santos will be shown on the hour in the Art Building's auditorium.

8:00 P.M. Concert with Kathy Kahn. Kahn, a social activist, poet, writer, bluegrass singer, and author of Hillbilly Woman, will perform in University Auditorium.

Saturday, May 3

11:00 A.M. Workshop on the media will be held in the Governance Chambers (KSC) panelists to be announced.

1:00 P.M. Kathy Kahn, workshop in the Kiva (KSC).

2:00 P.M. Daniel Berrigan, outspoken critic of administrative policies, will conduct a workshop, Governance Chambers (KSC) "They Shoot Horses, Don't They or What Do They Do?"

3:00 P.M. Holmes Brown, writer and political activist who has recently returned from a five month assignment in Indochina will hold a workshop in Room 310 A & B (KSC)

7:00 P.M. Daniel Berrigan will speak in the Kiva (KSC). Topic: "Where We're Going is Where We're Coming From, Or Is It?"

10:30 P.M. Memorial Marker Dedication, Taylor Hall parking lot.

11:00 P.M. Candlelight walk begins, Taylor Hall Parking Lot.

12:00 - Midnight Vigil begins. Taylor Hall Parking Lot.

Sunday, May 4

10:00 A.M. Interdenominational Service, Taylor Hill

12:00 NOON - on the Commons

- Mike Lunine, former dean of the Honors College
- Elizabeth McAlister, anti-war activist
- Kathy Kahn
- Eugene McCarthy, former two-term Democratic Senator, from Minnesota

If any further clarification is necessary, please feel free to contact Amy Shaw at the Center for Peaceful Change. (216) 672-3143.