May 4 Task Force
Contact: Wendy Semon
Fax # (330) 672-2517
Phone # (330) 672-3096

May 4 26 Annual Commemoration
“Social Injustice...Where Does it End?”

May 3 Activities:
- 6-8pm-Arts Tribute to May 4 in the Kiva
  This will be a program of poetry and music dedicated to the events of May 4, 1970 and other injustices.
  Daniel Thompson, Alice Cone Patterson, Mort Krahling, Merle Mollenkopf, Kathy
  Korcheck, Stephen B. Moegling, Pat Sweany (music), Troy Gregorino, Steven Skovensky
  Ben Pershey

- 8-10pm-Panel Discussion on the gym protests in 1978 (Tent City) and social activism in Kiva. There will be a slide presentation on Tent City followed by a panel discussion on the gym protest and its implication on current activism.
  Panelists for the discussion include Ronald Kuby, civil rights attorney for Kunstler and Kuby, Daniel Thompson, poet and activist at Tent City, Leatrice, activist, and Chic Canfora, activist and eyewitness to the events of May 4, 1970.

- 11:00pm-12:00am-Silent candlelight march around the campus, beginning at the Victory bell on Commons and ending in the Prentice Hall parking lot.

May 4 Activities:
- 12:00am-12:00pm-12 hour silent vigil in Prentice Hall parking lot in spots where the four students died. (The May 4 Task Force has spots open in vigil book, reservations available by calling 672-3096)

- 12:24pm-KSU Commons: Ringing of the Victory bell-The bell is rung annually once for each of the 13 students killed or wounded at Kent State and one each for the 2 students killed at Jackson State.

- After the ringing of the Victory bell, the commemoration begins. The theme this year is “Social Injustice...Where Does it End?” Speakers for the Commemoration are Sherad
  Brown, Congressman, Bernadine Dohrn, SDS member, Stanley Tolliver, civil rights attorney, Perkins Pringle, Black United Students, and Tom Grace, wounded student from 1970, and more to be announced. Music will be provided by Time Wallace. In case of rain the commemoration will take place in the Student Center Ballroom.

- 7:00-9:00pm-An evening of Folk music will be presented by Tim Wallace on the Commons. There is no admission, in case of rain the concert will be in the Kiva.
May 3 - 4 1996:

May 3, 1996

An Arts Tribute to May 4, 1970

Poetry and Music
@ 6-8 p.m., Kiva

Tent City
A slide and panel discussion on the Gym Protests in 1978
@ 8-10 p.m., Kiva

11:00 p.m. - Silent March
(Beginning on the Commons)

12:00 a.m. - 12 hour vigil

Sponsored by the M4TF.
Funded with Undergraduate Student Fees.

For more information, call the May Fourth Task Force at: 672-3096