REMEMBERING THE PAST, SHAPING THE FUTURE
39th Annual May 4 Commemoration
Kent State University
May 3-4, 2009

Sunday, May 3, 2009:
Poetry Reading: Remembering the Past and Coming Together
7:30pm, KIVA
Join the May 4th Task Force and several Kent poets for a poetry reading featuring selections from Come Together: Imagine Peace now available from Bottom

Annual Candlelight March
10:30pm, Commons (March begins at 11pm)
Join us for this silent, solemn march. It is approximately 1.3 miles long and is wheelchair and stroller accessible.

Monday, May 4, 2009:
Annual Silent Candlelight Vigil
Midnight-12:24pm, Prentice Parking Lot
The Annual Silent Vigil will be held through the night in the Prentice Parking Lot. Participants stand for half hour shifts. To reserve your space, please contact the May 4th Task Force

39th Annual Commemoration
Noon-2:30, Commons
Rain location: KSU Ballroom, Student Center

Speakers Include:

Pam Plamondon
Native American activist and author

John Filo
Kent
Pulitzer Prize-winning May 4, 1970 photo

Mary Vecchio
Eyewitness to the shootings and subject of John Filo's famous photo

>This is the first time since the May 4, 1970 shootings that John and Mary have met at the scene of the events.

Alan Canfora
Wounded at Kent State May 4, 1970

Laurel Krause
Sister of slain student Allison Krause

Special performance by:
Color In December

Presentation of Eyes Wide Open Ohio:
AFSC of Ohio

*All events funded by Undergraduate Student Fees